Plead Insanity.

The Fayette county grand jury has indicted Oliver Broadus for first degree murder for slaying to death Alice Ely, an inmate of Megowan street resort, and it is expected that he will be tried at next term of court. Relatives of Broadus, who is a member of a well-known family, have engaged Judge S. M. Wilson and Attorney Will D. Oldham to defend the accused, whose plea, it is understood, will be insanity.

Ever Have The Blues

Most persons will immediately respond, "yes," to this question, but few of them probably could give you any satisfactory idea as to the cause or reason for this despondent, low-spirited condition. Physiologists have discovered that this condition is brought about by the seeming inability of the liver to separate poisonous secretions from the blood, and, as a consequence, these are taken back into the system. In the treatment of such cases, we strongly recommend Rexall Liver Salts because of the success so many people have experienced in using this preparation.

Fix 'Em.

With the modern business houses, now being put in by A. J. Sult and C. A. Taylor, the city is beginning to pick up in its business section. There are a number of antiquated buildings on Main street, that should be torn down and modern structures take their place. Did you ever look at the old and worn out buildings in the city and owned by people who are able to put in large and commodious ones. It pays to erect these kind, and no town in the country pays better on the investment along this line. Lets have some better looking business houses.

Much Enjoyed.

The Coburn Players in their rendition of two of Shakespeare's choicest comedies, delighted two large audiences at the Normal School campus Thursday, matinee and night. This company of players take rank with the best, not excepting Al. Nelson, Julia Marlowe, E. H. Southern and others. The "Taming of the Shrew" was cleverly put on, each part being in the hands of distinguished actors and actresses. The "Much Ado About Nothing" comedy was played as a masterpiece. There was more real work for the actors in this piece, and Mr. Coburn as Benedick and his wife as Beatrice, handled their parts in perfect style. The lady especially making this part most enjoyable for her audience. These people will always get a large audience in Richmond.

Big Crop.

Messrs A. D. and C. D. Miller have about finished harvesting a mammoth crop of peaches and have sold the output at a nice figure. It is one of the few places in this section, where the peach crop came out abundant, even tho the frost nipped it some.

Helps Some

The recent rains will help the potato crop in this county, but there will be few for the markets and they will be at top prices. This is the first time in years that the potato crop has been a failure. Take the potato from the poor man's table and he is ruined.

Heilman.

Mrs. George W. Pickles was called to Mt. Sterling Sunday on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Heilman, whose death occurred in that city on the 16th. Deceased was a native of Clark, and her remains were taken there Monday for interment. Six children survive her. Mrs. Heilman had been a resident of Mt. Sterling for some time.

Matthews Comes.

John Matthews, who has been manager of the East Tennessee Telephone office at Nicholasville, will come to Richmond this week to take charge of the local office. He is a native of Richmond, and is promoted to the position of manager. Mr. Matthews has been with the company many years and is a very efficient telephone man.

Hill It.

During the wind and rain storm last Wednesday about six o'clock lightning struck the residence of Mr. Z. T. Rice on the Summit, damaging it considerably and turned loose a cart load of soil, brick, dust and lime in the house. The damages are covered by insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Rice and children were out driving at the time, but the servants were in the house.

To Frankfort

"Governor" Ed Brown, the well known local capitalist, spent the most enjoyable time of any of the excursionists last Friday, on the Christian Church's special train and outing to Frankfort. The Governor had not been to Frankfort for some time, and he took this opportunity to visit every place of interest in the capital city. He is loud in his commendation of the state for allowing such an insignificant moment to mark the last resting place of Daniel Boone. He has spent much time since his return explaining the beautiful new capitol building and its surroundings to his friends here who have never seen it.

For You.

When you know any marriages, births, deaths, accidents, sale of land, crop or stock, Church news or lodge news, please telephone or write the Climax, so we can let people in other parts of the county know about it. We want clean news of every kind from every where.

Saturday's Fire.

The residence of J. E. Greenleaf on Lancaster Avenue, which was gutted by fire last Saturday afternoon, was fully insured, and Mr. Greenleaf hopes to begin as soon as possible the rebuilding. It was a dangerous blaze and had gained considerable headway before discovered. Luckily it came at that time, for such a fire when the occupants were asleep would have caused much heavier damage, if not loss of life. In taking fire, Greenleaf and his daughter, Miss Van Greenleaf, and his daughter, Miss Van Greenleaf, were not at home at the time, except Mrs. Greenleaf, who was unaware of the blaze in the roof until discovered by her neighbor, Mrs. W. T. Griggs.

Normal Commencement.

Fifth Annual Closing of the School. Gov. Willson to Speak Friday.

The fifth annual commencement of the State Normal School is holding forth this week and will come to a close on Friday evening, when the commencement exercises proper will be held in the Auditorium. Gov. Willson will be the guest of honor for the occasion and will deliver an address to the class. Dr. R. H. Crossfield, President of Transylvania University, will also be an honored guest and will be a prominent speaker on the program. Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of the Board of Regents, will deliver the diplomas.

The exercises for the week began last Sunday evening with the baccalaureate sermon on the campus by Rev. G. W. Crutcher, of the Methodist church. The speaker's discourse was one of the ablest delivered here in a long time, and brought out many strong points for future thinking among the young teachers. He dwelt on the strong point of humanity for humanity and begged them as teachers to look at their work in the light of helping to make humanity greater and better in mind. He illustrated strongly in the story of Lazarus crying for bread at the rich man's gate, by likening him unto so many who were thirsting for an education, stretching out their hands to those who were learned, to give them of their knowledge that they may be able to go out in the world as men and women, qualified for the duties of life.

Monday evening at the Auditorium the annual commencement concert was held, and the lovers of music were given a rare treat. The concert this year was under the direction of the Cecilian Club, and the members of this organization acquitted themselves with much honor. In the absence of Miss Jean Caperton and Mary D. Pickles, Misses Giunghigliani and Keene gave two numbers. Miss Keene is the young daughter of Mr. Lilly Logan Keene, and played an impromptu—her own composition—showing great talent as a composer and as a brilliant performer. Miss Giunghigliani delighted the audience with her exquisite interpretation of the Schott Valse. The concert was most pleasing to all.

The following program was rendered with the exception of one or two numbers, that were unavoidably omitted. Piano Duet—Faust Fantasy—S. Smith. Mrs. Pickles, Mrs. Middleton. Cantata of "Armour"—Liane. Polonaise—E. Platt. Chopin. Marguerite—Mrs. Johnson. Ah, Gather Roses—Liane Lehmann. Miss Caperton. Valse—D. Platt. Miss Pickles. Crescendo—Per Lassen. Impromptu—C. H. Minor. H. Reinhold. Je dis que rien ne m'epouvante. Aria from Carmen—Bilzet. Miss Bright. Concert Paraphrase—Kuss. Valse (Strauss)—E. Schutt. Miss Giunghigliani. Piano Duet—Dr. Frischholz—Weber. Mrs. White, Mrs. Denney.

On Tuesday morning the Class Day exercises were given on the Campus, which proved one of the most pleasing of the entertainments. The program was as follows: Historian, Miss Flora Dolson; Poet, Lella Buchanan; Music; Prophet, M. D. Ambury; Grumbler, Emily Dyche; Music; Orator, Paul Luttrell; Historian, Edna Politt. Acceptance of Class Memorial—The President. This evening the Alumni Reception and Banquet at Memorial Hall is the program.

An Opportunity

Supt. John Noland, of the County Schools is just in receipt of the annual notice from the President of the State University, appraising him of the number of pupils that Madison county is allowed next year at the University. Madison has sent out some of the best scholars that ever graduated from the State University and hopes to continue. All those expecting to attend should write or call on Supt. Noland for particulars. Madison will be allowed nine students of small means, an excellent opportunity to obtain a higher education. In addition to free tuition, students appointed from Counties are given room rent in dormitories, fuel, and lights free of cost. Any student remaining full nine months is allowed his traveling expenses to and from school. The old way of selecting students by competitive examination has been done away with, and the County Superintendent is now the judge of whether a student is qualified to enter the college and if he will uphold the good name of the county along the educational lines.

Read What We Will Do

The undersigned having gone into the Real Estate and Commission business, we sell either publicly or privately your farm or your city property; swap your farm to city property, swap your city property to farm, will sell your stock of goods, your personal property, will rent your farm or your city property for you and collect rents, etc. If you want a good mule cow, harness team or gelding, or a good pair of mules come to us. You may say I can sell my own property, that may be true, but we have two chances to sell your things where you have one. Because people who have things to sell, list them with real estate agents, this is the reason why people who want to buy come to us. They know it is hard to buy from people who don't care to sell and equally as hard to sell to a man who doesn't want to buy. So you see the climax is reached with the real estate man and the dead made. So come on right now and list your property with us and we will sell it, insuring to both seller and buyer courteous treatment and a square deal. Commissions reasonable, no sale no charge. One member of this firm has had experience looking up titles and preparing deeds, this will be done without any extra charge. We have a nice office upstairs in Dr. Hurt Gibson's building over Mr. Brown's ladies' furnishing store. Come in and see us or ring us up. Office Phone No. 83. Residence phones Nos. 431, 588 and 688. Respectfully, J. B. Walker, J. Tandy Eads, Jesse Cobb.

Get a Bargain.

If you are a lover of good music, you should call at Mrs. Bettie Park's on Second Street to see and hear the Cable Inner Player. This is one of the most wonderful instruments of its kind in existence, being different in many ways from all other self playing pianos. Mr. Green who is representing The Cable Co. of Chicago will take pleasure in demonstrating this instrument to anyone who wishes to hear it.

Hot Weather Hurts the Skin.

Poisonous perspiration causes rashes, hives, blotches, pimples and pricely heat, often the beginning of serious skin troubles.

To be away the poison entirely, apply a simple solution known as D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema. D. D. D. is generally sold in $1.00 bottles, but for 25 cents we can give you enough to prove that the very first drops soothe and heal the inflamed skin as nothing else can.

Newsom Chosen.

At the State meeting of the Modern Brotherhood of America, held in Louisville last week to select three delegates to National Convention in Denver in August, W. J. Newsom, of this city was chosen one of the three, a very signal honor. Perry Jackson, was temporary chairman of the meeting and the following attended from the county as delegates from the different local organizations, Waco, G. B. Moore; Newby, Elvada Taylor; Beren, Ed Adams; Richmond, S. A. D. Jones and Red House, Major Wells. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Newsom were prominent among the ladies who attended.

After 'Em.

A drunken fight that occurred at Baldwin on last court day proved a good card for County Attorney Jackson in unearthing a great bootlegging business in Richmond. Two prominent residents of that section were brought before the county court and fined and the evidence showed that they had purchased a quantity of the fry liquor in Richmond. After being fined the County Attorney had them summoned before Squire Dykes for a thorough examination and it resulted in a warrant being issued for Thomas Burton. Burton declared he purchased the whiskey from Bell Rice and her son Will Rice who he has since learned have been engaging in the unlawful business for sometime, shrewdly eluding the watchful eyes of the officers. County Attorney Jackson says he has one of the oldest offenders in the Rice woman and he is to be congratulated on bringing all of them to justice.

Farm News

Items of Interest to the Farmer, the Grower and the Stockman.

The farmers have no room to complain now, for the earth is soaked in Madison county and the crops look fine. Tobacco and corn are coming fine, the wheat was good and oats shows up well. The farmers should be thankful, but it seems as if they are never satisfied with the seasons.

High Praises For Prof. Caneer.

The Carthage, Tennessee, Institute which came to a close last week passed the following resolutions complimentary to Prof. M. L. Caneer, who had been elected principal of Caldwell High School this city, and who will come to Richmond next month to reside:

"That we express our sincere thanks to State Supt. Brister for sending us Prof. M. L. Caneer as state aid. We feel that we express the sentiment of every teacher in this Institute when we say that we have never had an educator with us, who has done more for educational progress than has Prof. Caneer."

Fire Report.

State Fire Marshal Nelikirk has just sent to the Climax office a full and complete report of the fires in the state, past year and their causes, if known. During the year there were 2,057 fires reported to that office from 107 counties. Of this number 425 were from "unknown cause", 78 from incendiary and 1,554 from accidental causes as shown by the different tables.
